

SPACE APPLICATION CONTRACT FOR EXHIBITING AT THE 2018 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

In reserving exhibit space for our organization, I understand that AZA show management reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to decline and/or accept requests for booth assignments. AZA show management reserves the right to make all booth assignments. I understand that non-refundable Exhibit fees must be paid in full within 30 days of selecting space or the space will be released.

BOOTH ASSIGNMENTS: Booths are primarily assigned based on AZA tenure system, the order in which completed applications and payments are received by AZA.

BOOTH INCLUDES: A 10' x 10' & 10' foot tall draped booth, a 7" x 44" sign, and one wastebasket ordered by Paramount Convention Services, Inc.

BOOTH FEES: For AZA members, if more than one booth space is purchased, the first and second booth will always be at the rate of $2,175 and additional booths at the rate of $1,800. The non-member booth rate is $3,175 per booth. The non-profit booth rate is $2,775 per booth. Corner booth spaces are an additional $100 each.

SUBLETTING BOOTH SPACE: Exhibitors may not reserve or subsequently purchase space under their tenure year or company name and then proceed to assign, sublet, apportion or sell all or any part of those booth spaces without the prior written approval of AZA show management. AZA reserves the right to charge additional fees to any Exhibitor wishing to assign, sublet or apportion all or any part of its booth. Exhibitors that wish the share, sub-let, or co-exhibit must follow the Co-Exhibiting Guidelines.

BOOTH REPRESENTATIVES: Exhibitors understand that the occupants using their booth registrations will be EMPLOYEES OF THEIR COMPANY only, and will not include partners, sub-contractors or any person representing any other another company.

LIABILITY: It is agreed that AZA and/or The Washington State Convention Center will not be responsible for any loss, damage, or injury that may occur to the exhibitor, exhibitors' employees, or the exhibitors' property, from any cause whatsoever, prior to, during, or subsequent to the period covered by this agreement. AZA show management will provide 24-hour security service in the exhibit area to minimize theft and damage to the exhibits. It is advisable that you do not leave any valuables in your booth during hours in which the Exhibit Hall is closed.

IT IS THE ENTIRE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE EXHIBITOR to protect, indemnify, defend and hold harmless AZA and/or The Washington State Convention Center and all related parties from all damages and claims including alleged infringement of intellectual property of others resulting from the use of the exhibition premises except where the claim results from the negligence of AZA and/or The Washington State Convention Center and all related parties. Exhibitors acknowledge that the Exhibitor carries general liability insurance in an amount not less than $300,000 and that Exhibitor shall issue a certificate of insurance by August 1, 2018 to AZA show management naming the Association of Zoos and Aquariums as additionally insured for the duration of the conference including three days before and after set up and breakdown.

REMOVAL: No part of the exhibit shall be removed during or prior to the final exhibit session of the conference without specific written permission of AZA show management. Dismantling a booth and/or vacating the Exhibit Hall before the end of the last exhibit session shall result in a booth surcharge for subsequent conferences.

DAMAGE: No signs or articles may be affixed, nailed or otherwise attached to walls, doors, or other convention center property. No attachments may be made to the floor by nails, screws, or other devices that would cause damage. All space is leased subject to these restrictions. Violations could result in voiding this contract.

SAMPLES: Food/drink samples may only be distributed to attendees within the exhibit areas. "Samples" are defined as "bite" or "drink" sized portions (as defined by the Convention Center In-House Caterer). The management reserves the right to revoke these privileges if these guidelines are violated. No alcohol is to be distributed by Exhibitors.

EXHIBIT SALES: Sale of items from an exhibit booth is governed under the laws of the State of Washington officials strictly enforce taxation.

EXHIBITOR CONDUCT: It is understood and agreed that every company and company representative exhibiting at an AZA conference shall conduct business in a professional manner. All exhibiting companies take responsibility for the conduct of their representatives at AZA conferences. It is further understood and agreed that it is unacceptable for any representative of a company exhibiting at AZA conferences to, among other things, harass another exhibitor, harass trade show or conference management or security staff, enter another exhibitor's booth space, touch or take another exhibitor's product, attempt to or access the Exhibit Hall outside of posted Exhibit Hall hours without express permission of show management. Such inappropriate conduct, as stated, but not limited to the above, shall constitute a breach of this agreement and the offending exhibit company shall be asked to leave the show immediately, without refund of fees paid and may be barred from Exhibiting in the future.
